

You're watching watchmojo, my name is Alex. So you're in New York City, what are you gonna do? Here are some museums you've got to check out.

The Madame Tussaud's museum : Madame Tussaud's is a world renowned wax museum. See your favorite celebrity wax works. Madame Tussaud's New York continues to expand, adding several new themed attractions, including American idol and the Osbourne's family values.

The Sea, Air and Space museum : located at pier 86 on the west side of Manhattan, the museum showcases the world war 2 aircraft carrier USS Intrepid, the submarine USS Growler and the Concorde supersonic airplane. It is located in a tourist area next to a cruise ship terminal the Circle Line Pier and near the New York Consulate of the People's Republic of China.

The Metropolitan Museum : The Metropolitan Museum of Art, often referred to as simply the MET is one of the world's largest and most important art museums. It is located on the eastern edge of Central Park, in Manhattan.

The American museum of Natural History : this popular attraction is the largest Natural History museum in the world. It is bursting with artifacts, displays and exhibits, all geared to explain the natural world. The visit begins with dinosaurs which welcomes you as you enter the main hall. The architecture alone makes the museum stand out. It's a huge sprawling stone building that reflects an eccentric mix of style designs.

The MOMA : considered by many to be one of the best modern art museums in the world and with major art pieces such as Andy Warhol's Marylin Monroe, you'll have plenty to see.
